The image shows a 'User Registration' dialog box for 'Pluck'. The dialog has a title bar 'User Registration' and a Pluck logo. On the left, there is promotional text: 'Why register: Can't share. Can't sync. What can you do? More marketing stuff.' The main area contains registration fields: 'E-mail address:' with the value 'busey@pluck.com', 'Password:' with '', and 'Confirm Password:' with ''. A note states: 'E-mail addresses must be verified before the account can become active. In future versions you will be able to register multiple e-mail addresses.' Another note states: 'Passwords must be at least six characters in length and must contain at least one number or symbol.' Below these is a question 'Do you use multiple computers?' with radio buttons for 'Yes' and 'No'. A final note says: 'Select yes if you use multiple computers and you want Pluck to help you keep your web experience synchronized between them.' At the bottom are three buttons: '< Back', 'Next >', and 'Cancel'. A reference numeral '300' with an arrow points to the 'Confirm Password' field.

The image shows a software dialog box titled "User Registration". Inside, there is a section titled "Multiple Computers" with the subtitle "Synchronization Options". This section contains two questions, each with "Yes" and "No" radio button options. The first question asks if the user wants Pluck to automatically synchronize their favorites information between multiple computers. The second question asks if the user wants Pluck to import their favorites from Internet Explorer into Pluck Favorites. Below these questions is a note explaining that synchronization only works with Pluck Favorites and that existing favorites must be synchronized if the user chooses this option. A link for "What is synchronization?" is also present. At the bottom of the dialog, there is a message stating that synchronization can be turned on later if not activated now. The bottom of the dialog features three buttons: "< Back", "Next >", and "Cancel". An arrow labeled "300" points to the right side of the dialog box.
